REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The cited prior art fails to teach the claimed invention alone or in a combination. The invention as claimed is a method of managing data by providing multiple-view format for representing information content wherein the instance of said format includes data elements with predetermined media types and that all the data elements of the instance of format represent same content and that the instance occur in presentation independent format.

The cited prior art teaches the method of managing data with various formats including the data elements as claimed and in HTML and XML format, which is presentation independent format. However the cited prior art specifically fails to teach multiple-view format for representing information content wherein the instance of said format includes data elements with predetermined media types and that all the data elements of the instance of format represent same content.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

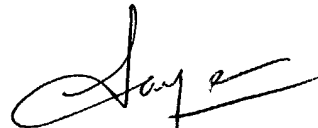

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sanjiv D. Shah whose telephone number is (703) 305-8355. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9-5:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Joseph H Feild can be reached on (703) 305-9792. The
